COURSE DESCRIPTION: “Personal Fitness” is a two credit hour, graded exercise class. Participants exercise and attend seminars at the Wellness & Fitness Center for a minimum of 22 hours per semester. Students will also complete The Wellness Workbook. There is a required pre- and post-fitness assessment. Participants can also take advantage of nutrition analysis, body fat testing, and personal training for an additional fee. Students on financial aid can take this class two times as EXSC 152, EXSC 153, EXSC 154 and EXSC 155.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:
All new students must attend an orientation. At the orientation, the student will learn all the rules and regulations of the facility. The instructor will show the students how to individually use each piece of fitness equipment. Each student will have an annual screening. The screening consists of a resting heart rate and blood pressure, and the completion of the consent and medical history forms. The student will then exercise at their assigned workout time without guidance from the instructor unless requested. Various seminars will be offered throughout the semester on Wellness related topics. Students will learn about their own state of personal Wellness through reading and completing The Wellness Workbook.
